Protection & Privacy Through Your Cell Phone

Your cell phone is a powerful tool, but how can you receive important calls for the safety of your children, lost property or pets, or protecting your residence if those that can help you don't know your number? Can you rely on your child's ability to recall multiple numbers if they are lost, ill, or scared and need your help? Is the privacy of your cell number a primary concern like most people?

Safeguard Connect[®] allows callers to reach you immediately on your current cell phone while keeping your phone numbers private, and protecting your and your child's identity. Through a patented ID number, calls are transferred directly to your phone, and up to 3 additional numbers if you are unavailable, providing instant connection, privacy, and identity protection.

How it Works

Your identity and multiple phone numbers are protected in our system, changeable at any time. You post your patented ID number tags on the items included in your kit or directly on your property. Callers dial a toll-free number, enter your ID number, and the call is immediately and privately transferred to your cell phone and identified as coming through Safeguard Connect. You simultaneously receive an email alert and summary of the call, and the call is forwarded to additional contact numbers if you're unavailable.

One Service, Many Uses

My Child Safeguard[®]

Vital child identity protection with bag tags & wristbands keeping their names and information away from strangers, while creating a direct link to both parents for separation, medical emergency, or lost property.

Special Needs / Elderly

Special needs persons and elderly parents especially benefit from direct connection to loved ones.

House & Property Protection

Direct notification of residential or vacation property security issues, and allows immediate return of lost property - phones, laptops, iPods[®], keys, gold clubs, luggage, etc.

Pet Safety

Direct pet return, keeping your home & cell phone, address, and pet's name confidential to ensure the safety of your identity, family, pets, and home.
